

“A Majorette’s Life”

A Poem about My Connection

I am a girl that loves to dance.

I bring the heat.

I take my stance.

I dance all day, but I throw no shade
because I support all the dancers that I meet.

When I compete, I compete to win.

Being proud of myself is no sin.

When the music hits, I get ready.

The beat is what holds me steady.

I throw my body into the air,
and reach back and flip my hair.

My competitors just sit there and stare!

I am a Majorette and mix different styles of dance.

Catch me on the floor when you get a chance!

When I do my backflip and tuck

I say to myself, “That’s not enough!”

I practice and get better every day so that I reach my goal.

Being a Majorette lives in my soul!

Citations Page

Original Poem written by Mriya C.

Images of dancers were taken from Google under
"Majorette Dancers"

Musical notes taken from
Adobe Stock Images

Accessed April 14, 2025